HOT WATER is a luxury you can afford to use liberally. An automatic gas water heater costs so much less to buy and to operate. Speedier, too! Plenty of hot water is your magic key to new, modern living—a 5-minute Kaiser Dishwasher, a work-saving automatic laundry, rush-hour baths for everybody!

But you do need a storage tank big enough for all these jobs—so better see your dealer to be sure you have the size your family needs.

In an inspirational talk to the group, Mrs. Buckley gave new instructions from the grand matron and explained the current chapter work, assisted by the associate matron. Following the theme "Love of Our Fellow Man," she said that charity is the most common interpretation of love.

Frances Buckley, OES Deputy Grandmatron, On Official Visit To San Pedro Chapter

More than 200 members and guests of Point Fermin chapter Order of Eastern Star gathered Tuesday at the Tenth st. Masonic Temple to greet Frances Buckley of this city, deputy grand matron, on the occasion of her official visit.

Alice Deatherage, past matron and William M. Walker, past patron, exemplified the escort of the grand matron and patron.

Torrance Chapter, No. 380, also was represented at the meeting by Edna Babcock, worthy matron and Vincent Viellenave, worthy patron, their officers and trailers, and a large group of members.

Given special escort to the east were other matrons and patrons of neighboring chapters, Arlys Hynes, San Pedro Harbor; Jo Hoestetter and Clarence Cartwright, Wilmington; Gertrude Stickle and Carl Wallis, Carnation, Redondo Beach and Bonise and Al Moss, Playa Linda, Hermosa Beach.

In an inspirational talk to the group, Mrs. Buckley gave new instructions from the grand matron and explained the current chapter work, assisted by the associate matron. Following the theme "Love of Our Fellow Man," she said that charity is the most common interpretation of love.

Initiation ceremonies were conducted by four candidates, Zola Vredenburg, Flora Willis and Grace and Stanley Stratton. Peggy Wilson was the member questioned by the examining committee, Margaret Economides, Dorothy Little and Eddie Grey.

Emily Sue Duncan, worthy matron, conducted the meeting and presented the honored guest with a gift from the chapter membership. Another gift was given by Grace Ham. Both gifts were fashioned into miniature dolls dressed in aqua and rose, 1948 colors. Thelma Kaemper sang "Beautiful Lady in Blue," and later during the jewel march sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

Cathie Dunn as chairman for the evening, decorated the banquet hall in aqua and rose. Individual favors were chenille dolls bearing Mrs. Buckley's picture for the faces. Committee members were Ethel Grey, Bernice Snow, Margaret Economides and Annie Gillespie.

Torrance Council PTA Notes Founders' Day At Its Second Meeting

A Founders Day skit, depicting the progress of PTA in the schools during the 51 years of its organization, marked the second meeting of Torrance Council of First District, PTA, held Wednesday of last week in Torrance Elementary School auditorium. Mrs. W. E. Bowen, president, conducted the business meeting.

Appointed to serve on a committee to formulate standing rules for the Council, were Mesdames A. C. Turner, president Torrance High School PTA; Elmer S. Moon, president Torrance Elementary PTA and B. J. Michels, president Walteria PTA.

Mrs. Evar Jansson, correspondence course chairman, announced that the PTA-sponsored study class will begin at 9:45 this morning in Torrance Elementary School auditorium. Mrs. J. F. Snowden, first District correspondence chairman, will conduct the class.

A delightful program, presented by Mrs. Wesley Graham, first vice president, featured Glen Hall, who sang "Your Eyes Have Told Me So" and "A Pretty Girl is Like a Memory." Mrs. Nadine Nickol accompanied the soloist.

Three Artists Exhibit Works In Palos Verdes Gallery

Fifteen paintings and art works by Mrs. Myrna Allen of San Pedro, went on display Thursday at the Palos Verdes art gallery exhibit with oils and water colors by Gordon Blair Evans and Milford Clark of Hermosa Beach.

Mrs. Allen's exhibit of oils includes marine and Palm Springs views, four still lifes, together with two water colors of eastern scenes, a flower tempera and two kretiques.

Blair, a student at the Chouinard art school in Los Angeles, is showing 12 water colors and Clark has 12 oils on display. The exhibit is open to the public from 1 to 6 p.m. daily, 2 to 6 p.m., Sunday and 7 to 9 p.m., Monday and Wednesday.

Formal opening of the two-weeks' exhibit was Sunday afternoon when members of the Palos Verdes Art Association entertained with a tea in the library.

SORORITY PLANS FASHION SHOW

Zeta Chapter, Phi Sigma Phi Sorority, has completed plans for a benefit style show titled "Fun and Fashion," to be presented at the Woman's Clubhouse in Torrance Wednesday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock.

Interspersed with the showing of milady's latest spring styles will be some comedy when models will not only show the "new look," but give the audience a view of the attire which created a sensation several years ago.

Apparel from local merchants will show what the well-dressed woman, child and teen-ager should wear this spring and summer. Clothes for evening, sports and street wear and for the beach and desert will be worn by attractive models.

Tickets will be on sale by members of the Sorority, and funds will benefit their philanthropic program.

SPANIEL CLUB MEETS

Take the advice of Reddy Kilowatt, and fly your kite safely. It's just as easy—and so much more fun! Just be sure to observe these four simple rules:

- 1 Fly your kite in an open field, away from pole lines and overhead obstructions.
- 2 Never use wire, tinsel or metallic string.
- 3 Be sure the cord is perfectly dry.
- 4 If your kite catches in a power line, let go immediately. Don't pull! Phone the company owning the line, and a lineman will come and get your kite for you.
